that a superannuation pension not exceeding Rs 416-10-8 p.m is admissible to him

8) The Comptroller reports that a pension of Rs 416-10-8 p.m is admissible to Mr P. S. Achyuta Rao. The latter prays for the grant of a pension of Rs 500 p.m or Rs 6000 per annum. This prayer has now to be taken into consideration as per Dewan's note dt: 3-1-1914.

9) The limit of Rs 6000 per annum had been fixed in the case of the officers belonging to the Mysore Civil Service and in July 1909. it was restricted to the Chief Judge of the Chief Court, Members of Council and the officers specified in Appendix A. (M. S. R.). (Vide art: 328 & 336 c. M. S. R.). In this Appendix Mr Achyuta Rao's name is not included. and hence his ineligibility to the enhanced rate of pension. It seems that the non-inclusion was owing to the fact that the post of Senior Surgeon was being held in the past by I. M. S. officers and that the question did not arise. Besides recently the benefit of the enhanced limit limit was extended to the cases of Dr Smeeth, the State Geologist and Mr R. Bocquet, Inspector of Mines whose names had not likewise been included in the Appendix, it is a point for consideration whether Mr Achyuta Rao's case may not be favorably viewed. Mr Achyuta Rao has rendered a Service of nearly 30 years and was drawing a pay of Rs 1400 p.m for 1 year, 7 months and 10 days. The Survey Comm^r, the D.G^l of Education, the Excise Comm^r etc have all of them retired on a pension of Rs 500/- and it would be an anomoly that Mr Achyuta Rao another head of a Dept^t of equal rank and status should not get it. Attention is respectfully invited to paras 2 and 3 of Dewan Sir Sheshadri Iyer's note dt: 19-12-1898. at the time of raising the limit of pension to Rs 6000/- per annum. The object was to give the benefit to all the high appointments in the Service.

20.) Dr Achyuta Rao wants his pension to be raised from Rs 416-10-8 to Rs 300 per month. According to actuarial tables the value of the concession asked for by him is Rs 10,873.

Application of Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao, retired Senior Surgeon for an enhanced pension of Rs.500/- per mensem.

Opinion of the Council.

Considering the high position occupied by Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao as the head of an important department, the Council are of opinion that this is a case deserving special treatment and that it would be fitting to sanction the grant of a pension of Rs.6,000/- per annum to him.

Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the grant of a pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum to Mr. P.S.Achyuta Rao, the late Senior Surgeon.

2. Under the rules in force Mr. Achyuta Rao can get a pension of only Rs. 5,000 per annum or Rs.416-10-8 per month. The special rate of pension of Rs. 6,000 provided for the Civil Service was abolished in 1909 and the place of the Senior Surgeon was not included in the list of officers eligible for the higher pension.When this order was passed, the post was held by a lent officer of the Indian Medical Service.

3. The Financial Secretary notes that according to the actuarial tables the value of the concession of enhancing the pension from Rs. 416-10-8 to Rs. 500 per month is Rs. 10,873 and if it is to be sanctioned it would be a case under Article 499, Mysore Service Regulations.

4. The subject was considered at a meeting of th Council. They are of opinion that considering the high position held by Mr. P.S. Achyuta Rao as the head of an important department and his successful administration of the same, the request deserves special consideration and that it would be quite in the fitness of things to sanction the grant of a pension of Rs.6,000 per annum to him. The Extraordinary Member also concurs in this view.

5. I solicit His Highness's gracious sanction to the grant of the said pension of Rs. 6000 per annum under Article 499, Mysore Service Regulations.
